SATURDAY THE FOURTEENTH OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND TWENTY TWO
CEREMONY HELD IN STANDISH, MAINE

History of the College

From the time the Sisters of Mercy arrived in Portland, Maine, in 1873, they dreamed of applying the educational goals of Sister Catherine McAuley, who founded their order in Dublin, Ireland, in 1831. After working toward this goal, the Portland Regional Community of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas founded Saint Joseph's College in 1912 on the grounds of the Sisters of Mercy Motherhouse in the Deering district of Portland. It was chartered by the Maine Legislature in 1915. In 1949, the name of the College was changed, briefly, from Saint Joseph's College to The College of Our Lady of Mercy. When the Sisters purchased the Verrill Estate and moved the College to Standish in 1956, they reinstated the original name of Saint Joseph's. Less than fifteen years later, in 1970, Saint Joseph's became a co-educational institution. Then, in 1976, the College became a pioneer in distance education programs.

Today, Saint Joseph's College of Maine remains as the state's only Catholic college in the liberal arts tradition. Situated on 474 acres that hug the shore of Sebago Lake in Standish, Maine, its panoramic views of Mount Washington and the Presidential Range of the White Mountains offer the space to reflect and dream. The College's undergraduate, graduate, and lifelong learning programs transform people of all faiths and ages into 21st Century leaders with the purpose and skills to sustain their communities.

Core Values

Rooted in the teachings of Jesus Christ and the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church and the Sisters of Mercy, the values of Saint Joseph's College are the foundation of its educational mission:

FAITH • EXCELLENCE • INTEGRITY
COMMUNITY • RESPECT • COMPASSION • JUSTICE

“We should be as shining lamps, giving light to all around us.”
—Catherine McAuley, Foundress of the Sisters of Mercy, 1831
